- Frustrations Reign with a _____
- How are going to manage systems and processes without a your How-To Manual?

YOU NET

Manage Your How-To Manual

YOU *TOOLS

- Unfortunately, we have found most how-to's are stored between the ears of the shop owners and not in a written format. That defines the issue of the business owner growing the business past him—the owner becomes the bottleneck. The staff members wait around to be told what to do. They watch the owner work very hard and when a staff member leaves, the how- to walks out with them; the business owner then has to start over. By capturing the how-to, the shop won't be left without knowing how something is done and the shop owner will not have to spend as much time getting someone up to speed on the how-to.

Has this ever happened to you?

- You could not remember where you kept the instructions?
- You could not ask a staff member they were off?
- You could not remember if you trained this person or not?
- You were told “You never told me this before”
- You were fearful of a staff member walking out because all the how-to went with them.
